

GUIDE TO THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT (FLSA)

What do those FLSA rules say... and what don't they say?

Learn the "Ins and Outs" of FLSA Overtime for Non-Exempt Employees

"I really enjoyed this course. Mr. Chamberlain made a dull subject very interesting!"

- Course Overview: Back by popular demand, this two-day workshop will outline the manner in which Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) overtime rules apply in organizations, and will focus on non-exempt employees covered by the law. This program will address the latest changes in the law as they affect managers who "control the work" and overtime of employees, Payroll or Human Resources personnel, and those who make decisions about operational policies.
- Topics:
- The policies and purposes of the FLSA
 - What the FLSA rules actually say
 - Navigating FLSA technicalities
 - When is FLSA overtime pay required
 - Computing overtime pay
 - How FLSA litigation works
 - Answers to frequently asked questions...
"7k" work periods, K-9 units, comp time, detectives and training
- Who Should Attend:
- Managers with responsibility for controlling overtime
 - Administrators and personnel specialists
 - Executives and command personnel
 - Agency and city legal staff
